

PBS ANNOUNCER COURSE APPLICATION 2020

Since PBS' first official broadcast in December 1979, from the Prince of Wales hotel studio, PBS has become a Melbourne music institution. We are a specialist music radio station, with a vision to nurture, inspire and champion Melbourne's diverse music community.

If you feel you'd be a musical fit, or would like to hear PBS progressively expand its sounds, we encourage you to apply for the PBS announcer course.

The PBS announcer course runs on the below dates, from 6:30pm-8:30pm at 47 Easey Street Collingwood

Conditions: The PBS announcer course fee has been set to recover costs, not as a profit making venture, so there are a few things you need to know. Once the PBS announcer course has commenced, course payments are non-refundable and non-transferrable. Should you wish to cancel your enrolment, PBS must have at least two weeks notice prior to the course start date, and a refund will be granted. In exceptional circumstances, you may defer course classes to the next course, if the current course has yet to start.

I understand * IMPORTANT:

- That my enrolment in the PBS Announcer Course is confirmed upon full payment of fee prior to the course commencement date
- Course fee cannot be refunded if cancellation occurs within fourteen (14) days of course commencement date
- Missed sessions cannot be redeemed in another course
- PBS Announcer Course Certificate will only be awarded upon successful completion of final assessment
- Applicants under 18 years of age require the signature of a parent or guardian
