

PBS MEDIA KIT

ABOUT PBS

Since 1979, community broadcaster PBS 106.7FM has been an integral player in Melbourne's music community – with more than 80 specialist music programs ranging from soul to garage to country to jazz. PBS brings people together – through radio and online platforms, behind the scenes and at public events – so that musicians can keep producing and performing in Melbourne, and the city can continue to flourish as Australia's undisputed and internationally renowned music capital.

PBS strives to achieve:

- A thriving, diverse music scene, particularly for under-represented music
- Content with integrity and quality
- An engaged and involved music community
- Sustainable operations

PBS matters because we support musicians and artists from the ground up. We are passionately committed to seeking out, discovering and presenting diverse and independent music.

This media kit gives you all the information you need if you want to talk to the PBS audience and align your message with ours.

THE PBS AUDIENCE...

- ① Wants more music, less talk
- ② Are collectors, researchers and music lovers
- ③ Don't respond well to mainstream programming and can't be reached through mainstream media
- ④ Are into experiences: music, arts, food, wine and travel
- ⑤ Want local voices / local news
- ⑥ Want an independent voice not owned by big business / government
- ⑦ Want diversity in programming; announcers that sound like them and specialty programming not available elsewhere
- ⑧ Want a diverse range of viewpoints
- ⑨ Actively participate in public interest outcomes

TESTIMONIALS

The Corner Group

Sally Mather and Ben Thompson, Venue bookers for The Corner Hotel and Northcote Social Club

"We love PBS! We've been promoting on PBS for over a decade and have always found it a great way to connect with a dedicated audience of live music lovers. We've hosted a number of great PBS events at our venues and they're always testament to the station's support of and love for Melbourne's live music scene. We look forward to continuing to work closely with them into the future."

Bluesfest Touring

Rusty Thorpe, Bluesfest Touring and Marketing Manager

"This is the seventh Bluesfest that we have worked together and I am sure that Bluesfest Touring has grown and continues to grow is a testament in part to the enduring partnership that now prevails. The PBS Marketing Experience is an easy animal to manage: The audience demographic coupled with your team's professionalism and dedication to 'client satisfaction' make the marketing of our Bluesfest and our touring shows a much easier and well defined operation."

City Of Yarra Council

Siu Chan – Unit Manager Arts, Culture and Venues

"Yarra City Council has a long standing relationship with PBS 106.7 FM and we are proud to have such a solid music loving and community orientated radio station in our municipality. PBS is an ongoing partner of Yarra's Leaps and Bounds Music Festival and has championed and promoted important events such as Smith Street Dreaming, Reconciliation Comedy Gala, CHANGES Music Summit. We also use PBS to inform our community about issues of concern and importance, such as our 'Keep it Local' and family orientated communications for New Year's Eve. PBS has a diverse audience base and is an important voice in Melbourne's cultural and musical landscape, as well as being a jewel in Yarra's crown."

Justin Rudge

Venue, Artist & Festival Booker, Performer

I can't remember the last major project I've been involved in where I haven't partnered with PBS! PBS have a wonderful sponsorship system through professional on air promotions, email newsletters & quarterly magazine. Their integration within the music consuming community means that you are always targeting those you want to reach - the passionate Melbourne music fans! They do such a great job promoting venues, festivals, musicians and all sorts of community and cultural events. You can't spend your promotional money anywhere better - it sells tickets and spreads the word!

Lisa MacKinney

Taipan Tiger Girls – featured on Drive Live & track on 2016 Radio festival CD

Like most community radio stations, 3PBS is run on a shoestring, and to achieve the level of professionalism that was demonstrated by the staff and volunteers in the weeks before and during the event(s) is a testament to the love and dedication that this station fosters."

Adam Gorton and Blake Scott on behalf of Peep Tempel

"Since 2009 The Peep Tempel have grown from a local band performing in small venues across Melbourne to now performing at large international music festivals across Australia and have had two of their albums nominated for a number of prestigious music awards, including the Australian Music Prize twice. This success would not have been possible for a band such as Peep Tempel, whose music is too raw for commercial radio, without support from community radio stations such as PBS 106.7 FM."

Richard Wynne MP

"PBS is one of the most treasured community broadcasters in Melbourne, and I'm delighted to see them move in to the fantastic Collingwood Arts Precinct. This funding will ensure they continue to be a strong centre of music and creativity in Collingwood for decades to come."

PARTNERSHIPS, LIVE BROADCASTS AND PBS MAGAZINE

PBS PRESENTS

Want to take your PBS sponsorship to the next level? Taking out a PBS Presents package is more than just advertising, it's aligning your brand with PBS, the brand. Having PBS present your event or tour gets the station on board and behind the event.

PBS Presents packages start at $1100 for independent performers

Festivals and larger scale events are quoted on a case by case basis starting at $1500

PBS Presents partnership arrangements can include:

- on air announcements
- website articles
- enewsletter listings
- social media coverage
- banners and PBS logo inclusion

* Any PBS Presents or media partnership with the station must include provisions for the PBS logo to appear on all promotional materials.

OUTSIDE BROADCASTS

PBS outside broadcasts are a huge part of what community radio is all about – getting down to our local venue, festival or event to soak up the atmosphere and bring it to you live!

The cost of PBS facilitating a live to air depends on many factors that include venue, timing, length of broadcast, equipment needed and length of marketing campaign as well as staffing and announcer numbers involved.

The packages start at $3500 inc GST.

Placements for PBS Presents and Outside Broadcasts are limited and go through an approval process with the Sponsorship and Program departments to ensure they are a good fit for the station.

WAVES MAGAZINE

PBS biannual Waves Magazine gets itself straight into the letterboxes of over 13,000 PBS members. A survey of our members shows that 85% actively participate with the magazine, of which 90% find the content engaging, entertaining, and informative.

Waves magazine features stories written by PBS announcers, local musicians and other keen music lovers. It traverses a broad range of editorial ground exploring past, present and future musical richness that is synonymous with PBS broadcast terrain. It is also packed with details of PBS' Member Business Discounters, behind the scenes pics of famous and not so famous people, PBS member promotions and a central program guide. Places are limited so get in early to reserve your spot in this exclusive member-only publication!
